SECTION 1: GENERAL GUIDELINES

- 1.1 Any Member of the RMHA that is dissatisfied with a decision or ruling as it relates to RMHA’s Bylaw or Policies, may file an appeal with the Appeals Committee.

Decisions of the Board under the Disciplinary policy may only be appealed on the following:

Procedural Fairness:

- a) Was a fair and impartial process followed consistent with RMHA policy?;
- b) Was there an opportunity for the parties to represent themselves?;
- c) Have any circumstances been identified post-decision that might affect the outcome of the process?

- a) Did the Board levy a sanction that was appropriate to the contravention?

- 1.2 The Appeal Committee shall focus on the legislation that the Board utilized to make its decision or ruling and review the processes followed in its decision making. The Committee shall exercise extreme caution when reviewing whether an operational decision was ‘appropriate’ and shall at all times give weight to the role, purpose and authority established upon the RMHA Board by its Bylaws and Policies.
